In The Name Of Allah
Most Gracious Most Merciful

Dear Family,
Peace Be up who follow the guidance.

I have received your disturbing letter, it seems to me that gambling is contagious, Andy got infected by his late star client. Every thing is going excellent here, all praise to Allh then you. There are no new news in here.

Cheryl, would you please contact the compay that you have purchased the Arabic XP from and ask them to either send or help you to find service pack (SP) 3 or at least SP2 for the Arabic XP.

XPSP1 was relased on 2002 so, it is not recognizing some of my computer hardwares such as the sound card and others. You would need the following information:

The XP info.:

Microsoft windows xp home edition (Arabic edition)

the key # is included (1 copy)

(xpsp1.020828-1920)5,1, 2600,1106

The laptop info.:

Hewlett Packard

Compaq Presario F700 Notebook PC

Info in the back of the computer:

s/n cnf 4802RQ

p/n KC490UA#ABA

product key 4BKGJ PWKPX 8KD2Q 8K63J BDY8T

Ther is SP2 for XP on (HP.com) but it is for English and it did not work with my computer so I would suggest to you the following to get either SP3 or SP2 for XP Arabic home edition;

- 1- Contact the compay that you bought XP from and ask for their assistance, or
- 2- contact my brother hafyeth and ask for his help, or
- 3- ask the nice guy you bought the last religious CDs from

I need you to ask someone who is familiar with the arabic XP Service Pack

I know SP3 came out a few months ago, but SP2 is eccepted .

They are free, at least the English one and Arabic should not make any difference.

My microsoft office software are not working b/c it need SP2 so, I am using the note pad with no spelling check.

Also would you please go to www.course.com to download the DATA on a CD or a DVD for the C++ book. Included is a copy of the section in the book where it talk about the data.

Davis told me he found the data but could not download them at www.cengage.com/permission/ b/c security issue here.

I am really sorry for the repeated and continuous requests from me, but your are my only window to the world. May Allah never put you in a position of need and if he does, to send a wounderful and graciouse rescue as he sent you to me.

Finally, my prayers goes to your doughter for easy - considering there is no easy way to do it - dilvery witout any complication and to have very healthy beuteful - just like his/her granies - child.... Ameen.

Yours

Ali
